SPORTS ACTION GAME FACTS:

- There are six ways to play Sports Action: Oddset 3-Outcome, Oddset 2-Outcome, Oddset Combo, Point Spread, Toto, Over/Under, Props.
- To play Sports Action, players need Sports Action menus which can be printed from any lottery terminal.
- Menu also available in the Province Monday- Friday and Sunday, and in the Vancouver Sun on Saturday.
- Players must complete a Selection Slip to play. (There are no Quick Picks)
- Available in BC only.

Oddset:

- Oddset 3-Outcome: The objective is to correctly predict all the outcomes (Home, Visitor or Tie) of two to six games from the menu.
- Oddset 2-Outcome: The objective is to correctly predict all the outcomes (Home or Visitor) of two to six games from the menu.
- The prize is determined by multiplying the odds from the selected outcomes by the wager.
- Players wager anywhere from $2-$100.
- Cost of ticket = the amount bet.

Oddset Combo:

- Way to play multiple selections of Sports Action Oddset without having to complete multiple selection slips.
- Can win in a combination of ways.
- Cost of ticket = wager multiplied by the number of games.

Point Spread:

- This game is about putting two teams on an even playing field. The favourite team in each game is assigned a point spread, which is the minimum score the favoured team is expected to win by.
- Predict the correct outcomes to win (either Visitor win or Home win)
- Players can wager $2-$20.
- Cost of ticket = the amount bet.

Over/Under:

- The objective is to correctly predict whether the total combined score of two teams will be over or under BCLC's projected total score or "line".
- Player must mark predictions O (Over the Line) or U (Under the Line).
- Players can wager $2 to $20.
- Cost of ticket = the amount bet.

Toto:

- The objective is to correctly predict the outcomes (Visitor, Home or Tie) of 11, 12 or 13 games.
- Minimum wager is $1, maximum is $972.
- Correctly predicting the outcomes of all 13 games on a current menu wins or shares the Toto prize pool.

Props:

- The objective is to correctly predict events or situations (Props) that happen within a game; for example will an individual player make a 250.5 yard pass in football or will a hockey game go to OT.
- Either select if the Prop result will be OVER or UNDER the 'Line' or YES or NO to the Props question on the menu.
- The minimum number of events to bet on is two, maximum is six.
- Players can wager $2 to $100.
- Cost of ticket = the amount bet.
- The prize is determined by multiplying the odds of the selected predictions by the wager.

SPORTS ACTION REVIEW:

1. List the ways to play Sports Action: _____, _____, _____, _____, and _____.
2. When playing Oddset, your players choose two to _____ games from the menu and must correctly predict the outcomes {_____, _____ or _____}.
3. When playing Oddset, to determine the prize, multiply the _____ from your predicted outcomes by your _____.
